ARE YOU A MAN WITH LOW BONE MASS OR A FRACTURE?

Researchers at the SF-VAHCS and UCSF want to learn more about how men respond to treatments for osteoporosis.

If you are not on any treatment for low bone mass, you may be eligible to take part in this 1-year study.

Participants will be paid, provided with calcium and vitamin D supplements and take a new combination treatment.

For more information, call or email:

Dolores Shoback, MD
415 - 575 - 0552
dolores.shoback@va.gov